President's Report for 1928

IN the absence of Mr. R. Y. Eaton, the President's Report was presented by Mr. A. H. Robson, Vice-President.

"For convenience in our dealings with the City Council, we changed our fiscal year to end on the 31st December instead of on the 31st of March, as it did formerly. This change made possible audited reports of our financial statements in time to be considered with the estimates by the Board of Control in January.

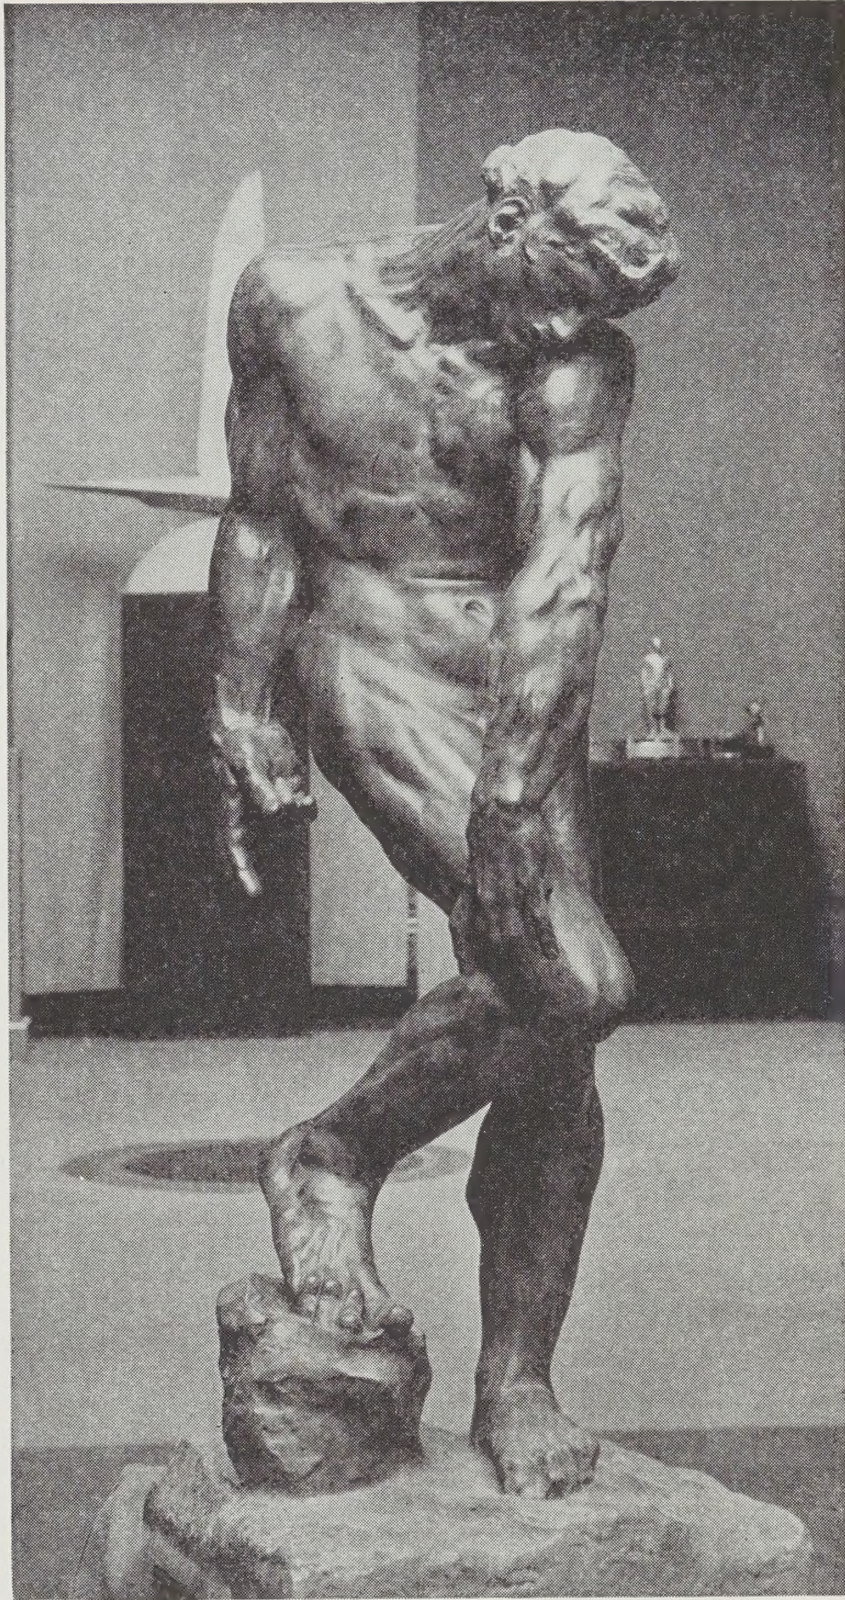

The change in constitution being properly confirmed at our Annual Meeting last May, the Report following covers a period of nine months with the exception of the figures of attendance where the full twelve months period has been used to facilitate comparison with previous years.

It is with pleasure that we are able to report sound, healthy growth in the various branches of Gallery development, and a growing appreciation of the Art Gallery as evidenced in the steadily increasing attendance.

During the nine months from April to December inclusive, some 26 exhibitions of group and one-man shows have been held in the Galleries, frequently several running concurrently:—

MAY	- - - - -	Old Masters Modern European Posters
JUNE	- - - - -	British Paintings
JULY	- - - - -	Permanent Collection
OCT. 5 to Nov. 1	- - -	Canadian Sculpture Spanish Paintings Robert Riggs, Water Colours Elizabeth Keith, Woodblocks Emil Fuchs, Etchings Arthur and Lawrence Smith, Batiks
NOVEMBER	- - - -	Phillips Memorial Gallery Loan Collection Frank Benson, Etchings O.S.A. Little Pictures
DECEMBER	- - - -	Royal Canadian Academy Carl Hallsthammar, Wood Sculpture John Taylor Arms, Etchings and Aquatints

The exhibitions have been to a marked degree varied as to medium, subject and artistic view point, and the interest they aroused gives evidence of the increasing influence of the Gallery on the educational and aesthetic development of our citizens.

A phase of last year's activities that might properly be commented on was the encouragement of sculpture in the Gallery. The exhibition of Paul Manship's decorative work held in May was a source of delight to many Gallery visitors. Running concurrently with this show, R. Tait McKenzie, a Canadian sculptor of eminence, had an interesting exhibition of his work.

In October a large exhibition of Canadian sculpture was held. This was the first effort made to collect an important and representative exhibition of Canadian work. The exhibition proved successful and very interesting, and we feel sure highly stimulating to this branch of art in Canada. It was sent on to the National Gallery, Ottawa, and a Canadian Society of Sculptors formed, which I understand was partly the direct result of our activities.

During December an exhibition of the quaint and colourful wood sculpture of Carl Hallsthammar proved of great popular interest.

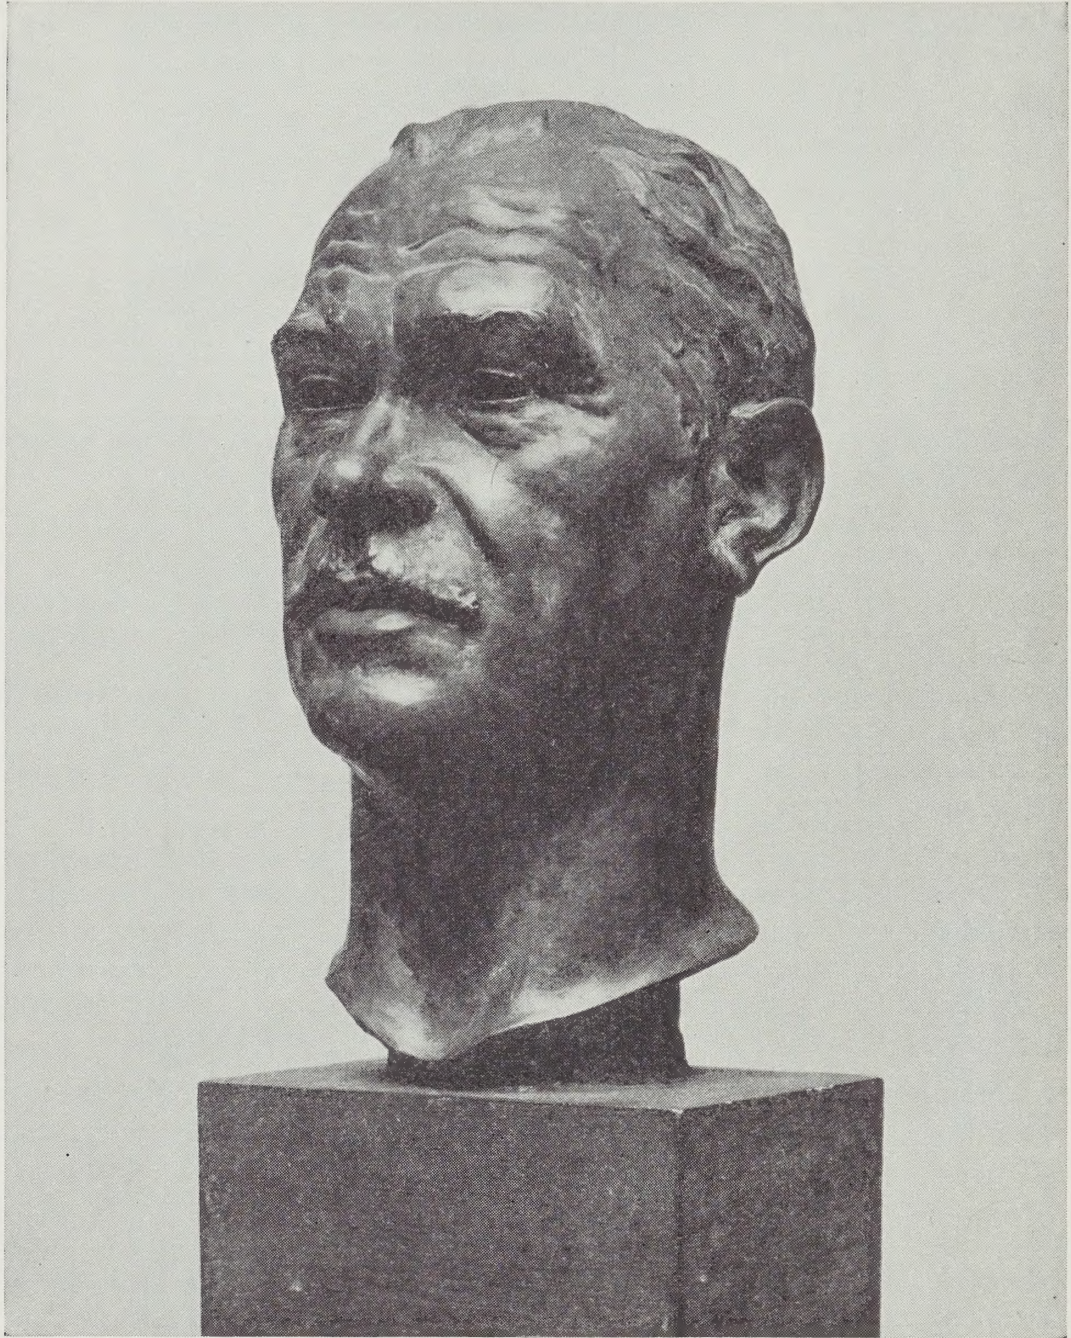

A delightful exhibition of the wild-flower paintings by Robert Holmes brought forth opinions that some effort should be made to retain this collection complete, both for their educational value as well as artistic merit.

The outstanding exhibition of the Autumn was the loan collection from the Phillips Memorial Gallery in Washington, secured through the interest of our Honorary President, the Hon. Vincent Massey.

In December the Royal Canadian Academy occupied four Galleries, exhibiting the work of artists from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Other Canadian Societies and one-man exhibitions to the number of nine, emphasize the growing importance of Toronto as an art centre.

The exhibition of Spanish paintings, and one-man shows in the media of water-colour, oil painting, and etching, by eminent English and American artists, made the nine months one of considerable interest to the members and the visiting public.

GALLERY ACQUISITIONS

The growth of a young Gallery, however, must be measured to a considerable extent by its acquisitions, and these during the last nine months have been gratifying.

Purchases of Canadian works from the Reuben and Kate Leonard Fund are as follows:—

Commenting on our acquisitions, mention should be made of the excellence and the encouraging growth of our Canadian section, which we owe largely to the generosity of Col. and Mrs. R. W. Leonard. The group of paintings and sculpture purchased from this fund is becoming a large and important portion of our Canadian collection, and forms a lasting monument to the munificence of these benefactors.

Your committee felt the need of more sculpture in the Walker Court, and purchases were made of Auguste Rodin's "The Creation of Man" and five other pieces of sculpture, which, with the generous gift of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton B. Wills of "Diana," by Paul Manship, make an important addition to this branch of art in the Gallery.

The installing of the Fountain has greatly added to the attractiveness of the Court.

Undoubtedly the most important purchase made by the Gallery is "The Elevation of the Cross," by Peter Paul Rubens.

Our water colour collection has been substantially augmented during the year, and is gaining in interest and distinction rapidly.

Prints and etchings have been added both by gift and purchase.

During the nine months covered by this Report, we feel that the additions to our Permanent Collection have been gratifying both in number and importance.

EDUCATIONAL COMMITTEE

Educational work of the past nine months has been active and productive of much interest in the Art Gallery and its various exhibitions. The lectures have been well attended, and have represented a wide range of subjects by competent lecturers, as follows:

Lectures:

ROBERT HOLMES, R.C.A.	-	Canadian Wild Flowers
F. H. BRIGDEN, O.S.A.	- -	Canadian Artists and Painting

WALTER PACH, M.A.	- - -	The Classical Elements in Modern Art
J. E. H. MACDONALD, A.R.C.A.	- - - - -	The Making of the Book

Musical Evenings:

An evening of modern French Music by the Toronto Conservatory of Music Trio—Donald Heines, Alberto Guerrero and Leo Smith.

An evening of piano and violin music presented by Mme. Norah Drewitt de Kresz and Geza de Kresz.

Afternoon lectures have been arranged for members and friends, at which speakers, including Emanuel Hahn, C. W. Jefferys, Alan Coventry, F. H. Brigden and Wyly Grier have kindly given their services.

Many schools and societies have visited the Gallery during the last nine months, and this feature of the work of the Educational Committee has sustained its interest, contributing in no small measure to the success of the various exhibitions. Various University groups visit the Art Gallery each week, and a special class in Art Appreciation, under the auspices of the University of Toronto Extension Department, is held every Thursday night at the Gallery.

A Bulletin has been published on the educational facilities of the Art Gallery. This has been widely distributed to all engaged in public education. The Gallery is grateful to those interested officials of the Board of Education who gave their friendly co-operation.

The Gallery is now in a position to send out exhibitions to schools and societies on temporary loan. Speakers, slides, prints, etc., are also available.

There is still more need for interest in the Members' Groups. The privileges of membership include weekly study groups, lectures, private views and study groups for members' children. Interesting and instructive programmes can be arranged with the co-operation of members.

At the present time signs of a new interest in educational work are noticeable and the Committee look forward to a year of renewed and increased service.

The first three months of the year, January, February and March, are always the most active ones in educational work. The omission of these months in 1928 from this section of the Report is noticeable.

ATTENDANCE

The attendance for the calendar year was 101,433. Compared with our attendance reported at the last Annual Meeting of 99,295, this shows an increase of 2,138.

The record, month by month, is as follows:

January	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	8,420
February	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	9,617
March	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	15,577
April	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	12,834
May	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	7,135
June	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	3,997
July	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	3,168
August	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	3,018
September	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	4,017
October	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	10,811
November	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	12,613
December	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	10,136
									101,433

It will be observed that no exhibition during the season attracted such large or spectacular crowds as have attended some of the outstanding shows in previous years, but our gain in attendance has been accounted for by a steady increase of interest on the part of our citizens month by month, spread through the year, and we look forward with confidence to a still greater increase for 1929.

Our Visitors' Book, kept in the Grange House, has been signed by interested visitors from all the Provinces in Canada, from England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Newfoundland, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, India, British West Indies, Bermuda, South America, Japan, China, Korea, Siam, Mexico, Bessarabia, Manilla and every state in the Union.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS

The Buildings and Grounds Committee reports the laying of a marble floor in the Walker Court which has made an immense improvement in its appearance; alterations and new wall covering in the Cox Room; new standard lamps at the entrance of the Gallery; and the completion of many minor details around the building and grounds.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Our thanks are due to the Press, Mr. Lewis, and the Members of the Publicity Committee for the excellent work done during the year.

We have pleasure in expressing our appreciation to City Parks Commissioner Chambers and his staff, on the excellent care of the grounds. The recent planting of connifers in front of the building has done much to enhance its appearance, and we feel grateful to Mr. Chambers for his interest and hearty co-operation at all times.

Appreciation should be extended to Dr. Harold M. Tovell, Chairman of the Educational Committee, Mr. Ernest Rolph of the Buildings and Grounds Committee, Mr. J. W. Baillie of the Membership Committee and all the individual members of all Committees for the excellent work done during the year.

Mr. Frank P. Wood and his Finance Committee have an excellent year to report and our grateful appreciation is due to Mr. Wood for the excellent work accomplished.

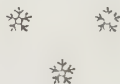

MEMBERSHIP

At the 28th of February, 1929, our membership in the Gallery was as follows:

Founders	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	42
Benefactors	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	94
Life Members	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	419

Artist Members		-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
TOTAL	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	2,023

A great deal of work has been done by Mr. J. W. Baillie and his membership committee during the last few months, and the above list represents members in good standing at the end of February, 1929.

Members failing to remit their fees promptly when due, make necessary additional work, and the membership committee would be grateful if the members would assist them in their work of maintaining and adding to our list of annual members.

ATHLETE

BY R. TAIT MCKENZIE

AUGUSTE RODIN

It has been said with truth that French sculpture at its best has ever been more or less in open revolt against the idealized stateliness and repose inculcated by Greek precedents. Thus, for example, a fondness for alert and vigourously expressive movement was a legacy from the Gothic stonemasons and carvers. If you study the work of the sculptor from the time of Germain Pilon to that of Barye and Carpeaux, you will find that the same fondness lived on as a tradition, till at last it became a potent influence in the life and work of Auguste Rodin. Then, little by little, it was transformed beyond recognition in a wonderfully unique manner, for Rodin blended it with an energy more naturalistic, and with a passion more vehement and more sexual, than had ever appeared before in the art of sculpture.

The bronze "The Creation of Man," which the Gallery has recently acquired, reveals this Rodin characteristic very thoroughly. The figure, in its first struggling rise from the earth, of which it was fashioned, the feet still gripping, and the downcast face which knowledge has as yet not lifted, is an epic of the first man.

Auguste Rodin was born in Paris, November 14, 1840, of a family of the poorer working classes. At the age of fourteen he entered one of those small schools of art which abound in France, and also sketched in the Louvre, and later studied with Barye and Carrier-Belleuse. When he was thirty he sent to the Salon the magnificent head known as "The Man with a Broken Nose," and it was refused as a horrid piece of modernism. He applied thrice for admission to the Ecole des Beaux-Arts, and was thrice refused. In despair of finding recognition in his own country he moved to Brussels and remained there for seven years, working under Van Rasbourg, the Belgian sculptor. It was during this time that he gave such passionate devotion to the works of Michael Angelo. "It was at Brussels," he said, "that I learned how to wait. It is the great secret." Again he sent "The Man with a Broken Nose" to the Salon and this time (1876) it was accepted. Then came that figure of a young man entitled "The Age of Bronze" which astonished the jury with its wonderful accuracy of modeling, and at the same time brought Rodin to the front as the greatest sculptor in France.

EMANUEL HAHN

The sculptor of the beautiful marble bust of Elizabeth Wyn Wood, which has recently been added to the Gallery collection, is Emanuel Hahn. He was born at Reutlingen, Wurttemberg, Germany, but came as a child to Canada. His first instruction was at the Central Ontario School of Art; and later in Stuttgart, Germany. He has distinguished himself in various efforts—bas-reliefs, portrait busts and memorials. Among the latter may be mentioned one at Lindsay, Ontario; St. Lambert, Quebec; Malvern Collegiate, Toronto; and the Edward Hanlan Memorial, Toronto. He has made busts of Dean Galbraith, Eugene O'Keefe, Dr. Torrington and others. The bas-relief portraits on the

THE FOUNTAIN—SCULPTURE COURT

Canadian National Exhibition medals for some years past have been the work of Mr. Hahn.

ROBERT TAIT McKENZIE

The diversified accomplishments of Dr. R. Tait McKenzie present a colourful background for what now constitutes practically his sole interest—sculpture. Prize-winning participation in athletics and work as a demonstrator and lecturer in Anatomy, have prepared him for his achievement as one of the world's great artists in recording in bronze the energy and rhythm of athletics.

He was born at Almonte, Ontario, and after graduation from McGill University, Montreal, he became demonstrator and then lecturer in Anatomy in the Medical School. In 1915 he volunteered for military service and rose to the rank of Major in the R.A.M.C. During the war he became widely known in England, Canada and the United States for his work for the reconstruction of mutilated and disabled men, largely through his ingenious appliances for muscular re-education.

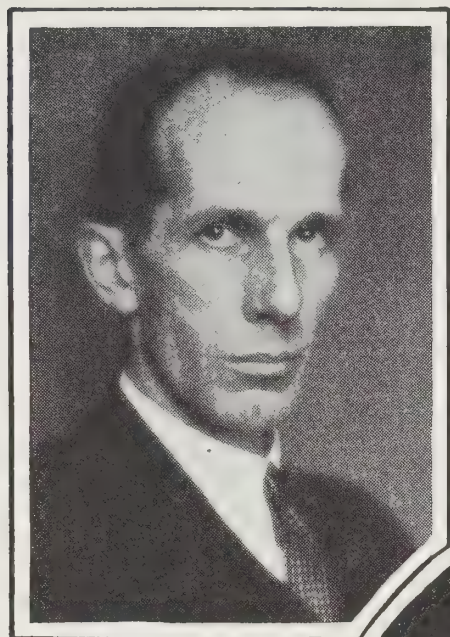

Tait McKenzie portrays clean-limbed youth in a manner that everybody can understand. He does not subscribe to any of the schools that get their effects by special or impressionistic treatments. He knows and understands the anatomy of the human form, and he realizes that it is a thing of beauty when vivid with health and action. That is what constitutes the appeal of Dr. McKenzie's studies of the nude male. He uses athletes for his subjects, and not only does he make them graceful and vital in their implied motion, but he gives them that beauty and balance that belongs to the human figure when anatomically correct.
